

Crazy Sea

I never know what a blue silent night has in store for me
When peace spreads over the sleeping harbour

That is when I wonder if the moon still sleeps in your hair
So I let some sea of mine carry me

(Chorus)

Crazy sea, crazy sea of mine
How do I calm you?
When I shout to you that I will come
When I spread my hands to you

Crazy sea, crazy sea of mine
You knock down all of my watchtowers
And all up to dawn you leave me
With just pain in my soul

What are you hiding from me, my sea of dreams, tell me now?
Did she go away from me or is she looking for me?

I stand so, like an abandoned ship, waiting for a miracle
While the crazy sea becomes one with the horizon somewhere

(Chorus)

Crazy sea, crazy sea of mine
How do I calm you?
When I shout to you that I will come
When I spread my hands to you

Crazy sea, crazy sea of mine
You knock down all of my watchtowers
And all up to dawn you leave me
With just pain in my soul
